

ROOT CARE

Introduction

ROOT CARE is an exceptional quality liquid formulation developed by ERMP™ Technique that improves soil structure, prevents nutrients leaching, enhances soil microbial activity, and improves soil CEC (nutrient holding capacity) and water holding capacity.

Natural supplements in ROOT CARE play important role in vital plant functions. In combination with other hormones, they promote cell division and elongation resulting in plant growth and development.

Benefits

- Improves soil structure and promotes microbial activity.
 - Enhances water holding and nutrient retention capacity.
 - Promote growth, improve root structure and reduces erosion.
 - Provides buffering against less desirable ions/salts and adverse soil conditions.
 - Enhance buffering capacity of soil that helps maintain steady pH.
 - Improves Cation Exchange Capacity (CEC) of soil
- Increases fertilizer use efficiency up to 20-25.
